James was born the 25th of Aug., 1932, to Frank and Mary Krebsler. James was married to his lovely wife, Beverly Dawna Lou, for over 61 years, and resided in Ridgefield all of those years, and lived in the house he and Beverly built 46 years ago. James worked for Bob Zimmerly at Bachelor Island and Pioneer Potato Growers for 50 years farming and building machinery and loved nearly every day of it. James also grew pine trees and Arborvitae for various local nurseries, and cut and delivered firewood to many locals. He loved to work. James also shot Trap at the state level, and was a member of the Vancouver Trap Club. He loved to hunt and fish, and really enjoyed playing slot machines at Reno, and the past few years at Rochester, or "up north" as he used to say to his family. James also liked to watch Ichiro and the Mariners play baseball, and go to the games with his son, Kelly. He also enjoyed watching Tiger play golf with Beverly at their home. Many Ridgefield natives worked for Jim at Zimmerly's over the years and loved his grumpy sense of humor. James was a good husband, great father, and a strong willed man. He will be missed.
