June 26, 1924 - June 6, 2024

JAMES RANDOLPH LUNDE June 26, 1924 ~ June 6, 2024

James "Jim" Randolph Lunde, 99, of Vancouver, WA, passed away June 6, 2024, peacefully in his sleep surrounded by his family. He was born in 1924 to Lottie and Henry Lunde in snowy Nanson, ND. Jim graduated from Rolette High School in 1942. He received his Associates Degree in accounting and worked at The Bemis Bag Company for the majority of his career. He served in World War II in the Army of the United States as a private first class. He moved to Vancouver to be near family, and married Agnes Rose Lunde on May 12, 1956. In his spare time, Jim loved to golf, inventing his own patent pending projects, and was a big numbers guy. Jim will be remembered as someone who loved to visit and socialize with his Creekside Estates neighbors, as well as attend fitness classes at the Firstenburg Community Center. Jim is survived by his two children, Rodney Thomas Lunde, Rodney's wife, Cindy, and Roxann Marie Bergeron; granddaughter, Megan Elizabeth Bergeron; niece, Ila Westergard; as well as countless other extended family members. He was predeceased by his wife of 64 years, Agnes; his three brothers and two sisters. Jim will be cremated at Willamette National Cemetery in Happy Valley, OR.
