

James E. Martin

Obituary Vancouver, Washington - James Edwin Martin Sr., 47, left us on October 21st, 2017 unexpectedly of heart failure. James knew and loved the lord. James was born June 8th, 1970 in San Antonio, Texas to Roma and Katherine Martin. As a family, they migrated to Portland, Oregon in 1974. He was the second son of their three children. He graduated from High School and worked in general labor and as a private contractor throughout his life. James was a happy free soul all his life. He loved the ladies and never had a hard time making any friends. He was kind and loyal to all he was close to. He loved old school R& B music and could always be caught with a big grin on his face. His interests included dedication to taking care of his mother's home, rooting for his favorite football team The Cowboys, a good bar b que, and hanging and mixing with close friends. He devoted much of his time and energy helping care for his family members. His charm and smile enlightened any given moment. James Martin is survived by his mother, Katherine Martin, father, Roma Martin, brother, Troy Hardeman, sister, Ronette Moody. James had 11 beautiful kids in birth order: Breanna Pittmon 24, James E. Martin jr 22, Tyrell Martin 20, Isaiah Mclalamant 20, Alex Hensey 17, Destiny Leever 16, Makaylah Martin 16, Ethan Romo 14, Eric Romo 13, Alliccia Romo 8, and Darnell Martin 7. Stepson Evan Romo 17, Stepdaughter Cynthia Jordan 25. James also leaves his only grandson Brandon Cade 5 and one niece Jahmia Moody 4. James life was not wasted, he was an angel walking amongst us all. Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believer in God;

believe also in me. My fathers house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. (John 14:1-3) Acknowledgements The family wishes to sincerely thank everyone for their support and love during these hard times. -The Martin Family
