

Janet B Steinmueller

September 25, 1963 - April 28, 2022

Janet Barnes Steinmueller passed away at home on April 28, with her daughter and husband by her side. Janet was born in Los Angeles on Sept. 25, 1963, and moved up to Washington when she was still a baby. The oldest of six kids born to Chuck and Mavis Barnes, Janet played a role in raising all of her siblings.

Janet attended Evergreen High School, and was a member of the Class of 1982. The biggest joy in Janet's life came in 1982, when her twin daughters, Crystal and Jennifer, were born. Janet met her husband, Danny, in 1984, and were married for over 30 years.

Janet spent many years coaching her daughters' softball teams, and later in life volunteered with local youth hockey. Janet had a passion for helping others, and greeted everyone with a smile. An avid sports woman, Janet was a proud Blazer and Seahawk fan.

Janet is survived by her husband, Danny Steinmueller; daughter, Crystal Steinmueller; brother, Kelly Barnes; sisters, Angie Pratt, Dawn White, and Lauri Rapko; along with numerous nieces, great nieces, nephews, and a great nephew. A memorial service will be held on May 14 at 10 a.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the non profit, 2 Hands 7 Continents (2h7c.org), in her honor.
