“ I love and miss you so much to this day, I visit you as often as possible and promise I always will. Even visiting and talking to you always brightens my day . Love you jerbear. This was my favorite memory when you tattooed my name and I thought u drew it on so I tried washing it off . I love you forever and a day .

“ I finally found the words to say, I loved you so much. You have given me some of the best mementoes. Even if we were together or apart we still always stayed in close contact. I am at peace know the last time we talked a couple weeks ago you told me how much I meant to you and I had the chance to tell you. I have missed you so much, you always knew how to make me laugh. Our marriage and proposal was the best I could ever ask for, even when you lost your wedding ring only after 20 minutes in the sand. It was the first of many I told you so's lol. Your have taught me to open my heart up and put down the wall I had. You are the only person who knows the real me. I miss you more than words can explain. We had just talked it all seems so surreal. I love you forever and always will as you used to tell me one day we will always get our " forever and a day". I love you a lot a lot

“ I don't even have the right words all I know is this man was very special to me he opened up the door to my heart that I didn't know was there he showed me and my son out of depression and gave us a new light and life and stupid life choices made us have to say goodbye to eachother then but I really don't want to say goodbye now for the last 10 years he's been around and like I said to him many times he was my knight in shining armor and you will always be MY KING!! Forever your Queen! rest in peace you amazing soul I will forever cherish your name on my chest and the song My Sacrifice that you always sang to me every time you saw me!! my heart is crying for you I told you that I would if this would happen I miss you dearly always will until I get to see you again my love.. hey while you up there go bike riding with my daddy miss you both!!

“ Jared was an amazing person with a big heart I've known him for 17 years he could always make you laugh he loved to fish sing and work on cars he love to ride bike . But most of all he loved his family . No matter where or what the situation was. you could always count on him to be there for you if you were in trouble and if you couldn't be there for you he would find somebody who could .. I love you jared you're my first love my first husband and always my best friend may you rest in peace. Love always Mary Aliene Schreiber
