“ People that did not know Jarrod did not see the most wonderful life! He didn't have a mean bone in his body, loved every one, and had more friends in his short life than any one I have ever known. He was so much fun to be with and was always making people laugh. He loved traveling and was up for anything. He will be missed!! We know that he is in Heaven and we will see him again.

“ Nineteen years ago our Heavenly Father had a precious and special spirit that He knew whose time on Earth would be brief and difficult. So He had to find the perfect family for His precious child, and He did. God bless the Cole family.

“ I never knew exactly where I would see him but as soon as he saw me he would jump up and down start waving and had the biggest smile on his face. Then he'd run to the bus and get on. He had the biggest heart and was always concerned about the other students when they weren't on the bus. He taught me how to understand what he was saying. My days aren't the same anymore. I had a vision Jarrod was standing in the middle of a wheat field a big smile on his face and waving then he turned and ran through the field with a big dog by his side till I couldn't see him anymore. My condolences go out to Jenny and the family, Eric and Kathy

“ Jarrod was such joy to have in our classroom. He greeted whoever dropped by with his broad smile and contagious laughter wanting to please everyone. I have so many precious memories but my favorite is how he would run outside when it snowed to catch snowflakes on his tongue. He touched many lives and was loved. I am so sorry for your loss, Jenny. Please extend my condolences to your family.

“ Dear Family, I would like to offer condolences from the Fred Moultrie family. Though we're sad that Jarrod had such a short life, we feel blessed to have seen him nearly every year at the Family Reunion Picnics, from the time he was a baby, up until he was growing into a solid teenager. Clearly he was so full of love and spirit, no matter what kind of mischief he might be up to at times! We hope that the current sorrow of your loss will lessen over time, while Jarrod's presence in your hearts remains forever steadfast. With love,
