JAY DEAN WISEMAN

August 18, 1957 ~ August 20, 2025

Jay Dean Wiseman, born August 18, 1957, was a lifelong Vancouver resident. He passed away August 20, 2025, after a two-year battle with pancreatic cancer. He is survived by his high school sweetheart and wife of 11 years, Michelle Macarty-Wiseman, his children, Jordan and Abby, grandchildren, Nikos, Shae, Haley James, and brother, Joel.

Jay was a passionate outdoorsman and adventurer, exploring the forests of the Pacific Northwest. He was also an avid hiker, fisherman, hunter, and birdwatcher. When not exploring the woods, Jay could be found being walked by his pup Skyla through city and county parks.

Jay loved nothing more than sitting around the campfire with family and friends. Those who knew Jay and strangers alike, could attest to his storytelling skills and friendly, talkative nature, where rabbit trails led to rabbit holes and back again. Everyone who met him loved his easy-going personality and humorous antics. He touched so many lives.

After graduating from Hudson's Bay High School in 1975, Jay was a decades-long fixture in and around the grocery business in Clark County; from Danielson's Thriftway in the late 70's, to Craig Stein Distributing where he retired after 40 years.

Jay's Celebration of Life will be held Friday, September 19, between 5 - 7:30 p.m. at Fallen Leaf Park, 2911 NE Everett Street, Camas, WA.
