“ My Grandma Jeanne was one my absolute favorite people in this world. Her personality went on for days, she left an impact on everyone she met, from the ladies at the hair salon, to all of her grand children's friends. Her love of old Hollywood, soap opera's & Danielle Steel books are just a few of her trademarks. I'd also like to think I got part of my sense of humor from her. She taught me to love oldies from playing the cassette tapes on all the rides she gave me to gymnastics, basketball, and even a few trips to the emergency room in the middle of the night. She was more than just my grandma, she one of my best friends, and helped mold me into the person I am today. I will never forget her smile, warm hardheartedness, and that funny bird whistle she used to do =) The memories of her are endless. Love you Grandma, Shawna

“ My grandma was an awesome lady. She was a kid at heart and because of that she was so full of life. She threw herself into each holiday, loved to give gifts, watched cartoons with the grandkids and great grandkids, collected beanie babies, and spent hours playing board games with family and friends. We would spend hours on the phone; sometimes I would lose track if we were talking about her life or the lives of soap opera characters. I have missed my grandma Jeanne this last year and now. There is a hole in my heart because I can't hug her or call her on the phone but I know that she is watching over us everyday and still sharing in our lives.

“ We lived in an RV park in Tualatin in the Sears tent Jeanne bought us when expecting our third child. When summer was over it got colder so Jeanne bought us a small camper which we parked on 82nd and Foster in the bar parking lot.

“ As a young couple, Marc and I had not much money with our new family. Jeanne and I drove to the grocery store and she helped me pick out bags of groceries which she paid for.

“ Funny thing- when expecting the twins, Jeanne had Sears send various baby toys and furniture to Delano, Ca. where we were working in Truck Stops. Upset when the order didn't come, she complained to Sears. Imagine our surprise when Two orders arrived!

“ Grandma Jeanne insisted her Grandbabies needed high-top leather shoes to support their ankles and ensured an ample supply for them all.

“ I first met Jeanne with one Springer Spaniel wrapped around my neck and another Springer we had found at a park on a leash. I had a guitar, a small bag of clothes, and two tennis rackets. She probably thought I was nuts but I was actually nuts about her son.

“ Jeanne and Jack flew to Lupton, Az. where we worked in another Truck Stop on the Indian Reservation. The double-wide we lived in had a large jacuzzi tub and when Jeanne checked on the grandkids she was baby-sitting, she found her twin two-year old grandkids in the tub with all their clothes on!

“ Jeanne cosigned on a little two story house for Marc and me. It was on Duke and Flavel Street in Portland. In those days, there was no 205 bridge, and we'd make a long trip on Marine Drive to share Christmases with "Grandpa Jack" and "Grandma Jeanne" in Vancouver.

“ Jeanne threw me a baby shower for first baby Heather at her house. The theme was Raggedy Ann and Andy(in those days you usually did not know the sex of your baby until arrival!). There in her frontroom was a beautiful dark brown crib complete with Raggedy Ann and Andy quilt set and bumper pad in her frontroom! She had hand-made a Hawaiian lei out of colored cellophane filled with various small baby items.

“ Jeanne took just us ladies-Gigi(her Mom from Ohio), me, baby Heather and baby Heidi Jeanne, to the Studio for professional photos. She had our hair done at her hairdresser and Heidi's was especially curly and cute. Imagine her frustration when little Heidi absolutely refused to sit for the picture. She took us to Shari's for an ice cream, where she bribed "Princes Papoolie" into agreeing to sit for the photo!

“ Jeanne was a great lady with a heart of gold. One Christmas she lavished gifts on me, wrapping purple passion perfume to put it in my stocking, gift boxing a purple maternity sweater to keep me warm up here in Vancouver. She treated me like a princess and said I was the daughter she always wanted. Jeanne was like a Mom to me and I loved her like a Mom.
