

Jeanne D. Levasseur

July 24, 1927 - September 1, 2010

Jeanne d'Arc (Caouette) LeVasseur, born July 24, 1927, in Princeville, Quebec, departed September 1, 2010, from Vancouver, Washington, to rejoin her husband, Richard S. LeVasseur, her brothers Jean-Charles, Luc, and Maurice, and the many other dearly departed friends and family members who preceded her. She leaves behind her sons, Marc and Jamie, three grand children, Teresa, Luc and Lucy, her daughters-in-law, Goreti and Irene. In Quebec there remain four sisters: Marie-Claire, Magdelaine, Yvette with her husband Raymond Piche, Monique, and Jeannine; and two brothers: Richard and Rodrigue with his wife Rejeanne. She also leaves behind numerous family members and friends in Oregon, Washington, Minnesota, and Quebec. Jeanne d'Arc loved sewing, walking, tennis, cross-country skiing, reading, being with her friends, and especially with her family. "Listen, I will tell you a mystery! We will not all die, but we will all be changed" (I Corinthians 15.51 NRSV). Those who knew Jeanne d'Arc are deeply affected by her loss. The world has changed for us. She will be dearly missed. Services will be held at 10:00 AM, September 17, at Saint Joseph's Catholic Church in Vancouver, Washington.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 09:53 PM

LS

“ Jeanne was one of the nicest people I have ever known. I'll never forget the walks with her and my mom during my summers off during middle school and high school years. And she would play tennis with me as well a couple mornings during the week...she kept me on my toes. God bless.

Lori (Lee) Sande - September 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

LL

“ I am a better person for having known and loved Jeanne. I can only imagine how much her gentle personality will be missed by the family she loved so much. A cousin by marriage Lois LeVasseur Liners

Lois LeVasseur Liners - September 14, 2010 at 12:00 AM

LT

“ "Hello? Yes. Just a minute. Jamie! Telephone!" As clear in my memory today as though I had just now phoned the LeVasseur home. Such a soft-spoken voice the angels shall share in Paradise.

Lyle & Tory - September 14, 2010 at 12:00 AM