

Jeannie Muriel Semaia

March 29, 1940 - January 21, 2013

JEANNIE SEMAIA March 29, 1940 ~ January 21, 2013 Jeannie Semaia, 72, of Vancouver, WA, passed away at home on Jan. 21, 2013. She was born in National City, CA on March 29, 1940 to Ben and Jessie Glazner. Jeannie had her Nursing degree and was Head Nurse of Pediatrics at Emanuel Hospital in Portland, OR. She enjoyed reading and fishing. "If I could describe this woman in four words, they would be "the tree of life". Her arms-the branches reaching out to help others and not just people, but animals also. Jeannie was a woman who loved and cared for all. She would gladly give you anything as long as she had enough to live. Always thinking of others before herself, that was the kind of nurse, mom, family member or just friend that she was. At work or at home, the nurse never shut off." Jeannie is survived by her sister, Sandra; brother, Stan; daughters, Theresa and Celia; son, Ben; daughter-in-law, Denise; and three grandchildren, Nikkia, Tamika and Emani. She was preceded in death by her father, Ben Glazner; mother, Jessie Glazner; and husband, Mino Semaia. Viewing will be held at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Ave., Vancouver, WA 98684 on Sun., Jan. 27, 2013 from 12:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m., with a memorial service to follow there on Mon., Jan. 28, 2013, 12:30 p.m.
