“ My sincere condolences Carol for your loss, Michelle, my and I were a friend of Jeff's in the late 80s and early 90s before we move back to Idaho. We were attending school in Portland and lived in his ward for a time. I was surprised and shocked to see an obituary we were trying to find him just to reconnect after all these years. We were just a new married couple with a couple of children and Jeff was so kind to us. We hung out together a lot and I believe went to a cabin that he had somewhere in that area that was his family's cabin as I recall. Again we are saddened and shocked to hear that he passed away and we wish you love and Our deepest condolences.

“ I just found out about the passing of my old friend Jeff Beach. I am shocked and saddened. Jeff was such a great guy. I remember going to the cabin - fishing and boating. I remember some practical jokes. I remember some tough times too. I remember helping with his resume and we would joke about all sort of made-up qualities - that was a lot of fun. I remember when he and Debbie got together and then finally married. I remember visiting with grandma Flossie. Jeff really loved Debbie, his mother Carol, his grandmother & grandfather, his brother and sisters. He spoke fondly of nephews, nieces, and his aunts. I will miss my dear friend Jeff. God bless and rest in peace my friend.

“ I worked with Jeff for 4 years. He was one of kindest people I have ever known. He took an interest in other people's lives. It was always a better workday when Jeff was there.

“ Kerry worked with Jeff and Nautilus and we knew both Jeff and Debbie before they were married. We have fond memories of Jeff, his cheerful greeting and smile, his kindness, and we want Debbie to know that our prayers are with her.

“ Jeff and I became good friends almost 20 years ago. I enjoyed spending time with him.....especially when we'd go fishing together! Jeff was such a kind person. He had a great sense of humor and could easily make you laugh. He had a great smile, too. He will be greatly missed!
