JENNIFER CATHERINE MILLIGAN

July 26, 1957 ~ September 3, 2025

Jennifer Catherine Milligan (née Kaiser), of Vancouver, WA, passed away on September 3, 2025, at the age of 68, after a long illness.

Born on July 26, 1957, in Fort Collins, CO, she was the daughter of Francis and Barbara Kaiser (née Telkamp). Jennifer made her career in microbiology, volunteered with St. Vincent de Paul, and was previously active with 4-H and the Boy Scouts of America.

Jennifer was known for her warmth, intelligence, and generosity. She had a gift for making others feel welcome—whether through conversations shared around the table, her presence at community gatherings, or the thoughtful way she connected with people from all walks of life. A natural planner, she approached both her work and daily life with care and intention. Above all, she was selfless, always putting the needs of others before her own and offering her time, care, and love without hesitation.

She is survived by her children, Colleen and her husband James Carlton, and John and his wife Cassie Parsons; her brothers, Christopher and Peter; five grandchildren, Aiden, Jacob, Elliot, Jonas, and Forrest; her many nieces and nephews; and many dear friends. Jennifer was preceded in death by her parents, Francis and Barbara; her siblings, Michael, Annette, and Susan; her former husband and friend Charles Milligan; and her brother-in-law, Christopher Pinto.

A funeral Mass will be held on September 30, 2025, at 11 a.m. at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church in Vancouver, WA. A viewing will take place on September 29, 2025, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the St. Vincent de Paul - Vancouver Conference.
