

Jennifer Lee-Ann Nelson

September 26, 1954 - March 11, 2019

Jennifer Lee-Ann Nelson, age 64, passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family. She died from metastasized breast cancer. The Vancouver, WA native graduated from Fort Vancouver High School in 1973, then attended Clark College.

Jennifer cherished her long-term friendships and enjoyed helping others. She volunteered at several non-profits in the Vancouver area, loved animals and was very spiritual. No one savored warm, sunny days more than she. Her sister Linda noted, "It was a blessing the sun was bright as she began her next journey."

Jennifer was the twin of James Lowell Nelson and is survived by siblings, Norval Nelson and Linda Nelson; and nephew, Luke Zevely.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Norval Nels Nelson and Isabelle Nelson Barnes.

Funeral services are private and for immediate family.
