In Loving Memory of Jesse Grover

We are heartbroken to share the loss of our beloved son, Jesse Grover. Jesse was a vibrant, fun-loving person who touched the lives of everyone he met. He was the son of John Grover and Ramona Locken, the cherished husband of Diana Grover, and a loving father to Odin, Bodhi, and Luna. Jesse was also a brother to Cole & wife Takara, Seth & Fiancé Julie, Carson, McKenna, and Pierson, and a proud uncle to Kenny and Korra.

Jesse had an incredible circle of friends, from childhood companions who remained loyal friends to this day, to those in the brewing, real estate, and power washing communities. He seemed to make friends wherever he went. His presence was larger than life, and the outpouring of love and cherished memories from those who knew him is overwhelming and very much appreciated.

He was truly passionate about everything he did. Jesse had an innate ability to bring people together, and his enthusiasm for life was contagious. It's hard to put into words the essence of who you were, Jesse. You were the "Golden Grandchild," the sun we all orbited around. Your capacity for love and growth was boundless. You always sought to do better—to be a better human, husband, father, and business owner—but the truth is, you were already the best. Every person who called or texted has said, "I LOVED Jesse. He was the BEST!"

Jesse's smile and laughter were impossible to forget. They were loud, beautiful, and filled with pure joy. His love was fierce, loyal, and deep—qualities he extended to everyone he held dear.

As a father, Jesse was truly remarkable. He had a playful spirit, always making time for his children—whether it was playing games, sharing jokes, or reading to them every night. No matter how busy life got, he made sure to be present for his kids. He never missed an event—whether it was sports games, school concerts, or birthday parties—Jesse was there, with that big smile on his face, beaming with pride. He did the same for his siblings and friends—always the first to offer help, always eager to lend a hand, and always willing to learn and grow.

Jesse, you will be deeply missed, but you will always be remembered. You lived life to the fullest and taught us all more than we could ever express. Thank you for the joy you brought into our lives. You were, and always will be, our shining star. WE love and miss you deeply, and will be living our lives with passion in your honor, as you did your own life.
