

Jesse George Macy

November 14, 1925 - February 28, 2017

Jesse G. Macy, 91, passed away Tuesday, February, 28th, 2017. He leaves his wife of 59 years, Eunice, daughter Tamara, son Jeffrey, daughter-in-law Dawn and grandchildren Kim, Talia, and Jarod. He was preceded in death by his daughter Gloria and grandson Kevin. Born and raised in Houston, Texas, he has resided in Vancouver for the past 60 years. He served in the Merchant Marines towards the end of WWII. After his service and several various jobs including a bell hop at a hotel, he worked for various railroads, including the SP&S and Burlington Northern, starting as telegraph operator and eventually becoming a conductor until his retirement the age of 62. His favorite hobbies when he was younger included deer and elk hunting and serving as his own general contractor in the construction of several of his own homes. A funeral service will be held Saturday, March 4, 2017 at 10:00AM at Evergreen Memorial Gardens in Vancouver, WA.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 03:23 PM

AE

“ Dale & I were so sorry to hear of Jesse's passing. We so enjoyed our trip out to visit with you all & I thought in the last few days of the walk we took with Jesse when I was so busy gawking at all the beautiful things & the things he pointed out to us that I didn't see the crack in the sidewalk & fell flat on my face & also remembered him sharing his homemade cookies with us. I know your strong faith & all your special memories will help ease the pain of loss. We love you, Annette

Annette Ekstrom - March 04, 2017 at 12:00 AM

GE

“ We are sorry to hear of your loss. Please accept our deepest condolences and love. May God cover you with his presence, peace and comfort in the days to come.

Gedde - March 02, 2017 at 12:00 AM