

Jessie Belle Marie Risor

February 6, 1933 - September 27, 2013

JESSIE BELLE MARIE (KEENEY) RISOR February 6, 1933 ~ September 27, 2013 God called Jessie Belle Marie (Keeney) Risor home on the morning of September 27, 2013. She passed peacefully in the home of Daughter, Patricia Quintana surrounded by her loving family at the age of 80. Jesse was born in Battle Creek, Nebraska on February 6, 1933 to her Mother, Marie and Father, Jesse Keeney. She was one of five siblings. Jessie met Robert "Bob" Risor and married on May 3, 1952. The couple moved to the Washington area in the early 50s. Jessie loved the color pink and playing the organ beautifully at church. She enjoyed preparing meals for her family and friends such as her famous Homemade Chicken and Egg Noodles, Kolaches, and pies. Jessie and Bob were blessed by four loving children. She is survived by her Husband Bob, and four children - Daughter Karen Young and her Husband, Rick Young; Daughter Patricia Quintana and Husband Rick Quintana; Son Robert Risor, Jr. and his Wife Susie; and Son, James Risor. Jessie is also survived by 15 Grandchildren and 31 Great Grandchildren. Jessie was preceded in death by her Mother and Father, Son Michael Risor, Sisters Ella, Neva, Beulah, Doris and Brother William. A memorial service is scheduled for 3:00 p.m., Saturday, October 12, 2013 at Evergreen Memorial Gardens, 1101 NE 112th Ave, Vancouver, WA 98684. -

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:07 PM

AN

“ a wonderful grandma with a lot of love to give. the years will be hard with out her but knowing that she is with other angels just like her is okay. we will all miss putting our arms around her to hug. I know she is watching our grandpa. and please God hold her close to you.

antonia - January 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM

NF

“ Our loving grandma up with God. We will miss her very much. Another angel up in heaven.

Norris family - October 12, 2013 at 12:00 AM