“ Echoing the pain of loss, yet also the deep honor felt by having known Jinai, a woman of abundant courage and kindness. With her infectious laughter, matchless intelligence, and a spirit for adventure, she was indeed a remarkable being. Passionate and selfless in equal measure, it was in 2019 that we first crossed paths. From then on, we became each others safe haven through life's hardships. Her legacy will forever glow brightly in my heart - an eternal gift of grace that taught me to love myself further.
