

Joan May Boomsliter

March 26, 1933 - March 24, 2023

Joan May Boomsliter passed away peacefully March 24, 2023, surrounded by her beloved family. Joan was born in Yakima, WA, on March 26, 1933, to Dan and Wanda Carpenter. She was preceded in death by her husband of 50 years, Nelson Lee Boomsliter; and their son, Bruce Boomsliter. Joan is survived by her daughters, Cynthia Gorman, and her husband Jim Gorman of Anchor Point, AK, Dianne Scott of Olympia, WA; and five grandchildren, Michael Gorman of Stowe, VT, Ricky Scott of Rochester, WA, Stephanie McMillan of Anchorage, AK, Jennifer Boomsliter and Robert Boomsliter of Vancouver, WA; and five great-grandchildren. Joan was a 1951 graduate of Fort Vancouver High School, where she was active in teaching dance. She was an accomplished artist and an active member of the Dolls are Us club and was supportive of several charities. Jo, as she was affectionately known, loved to travel especially summers in Alaska. There she once landed a 60 pound Chinook. She was an accomplished cook and was famous for her apple pies. A private Interment was at Evergreen Memorial Gardens on April 7, 2023. A celebration of life will be held later this summer. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Joan's favorite charity, St. Judes Children's Hospital.
