

Joan Ann Sayers

December 4, 1945 - January 13, 2016

JOAN ANN "JOANN" SAYERS December 4, 1945 ~ January 13, 2016 At the age of 65, Joan Ann "Joann" Sayers was diagnosed with Alzheimer's and passed away at age 70 in Vancouver, Washington. She was born in Portland, Oregon on December 4, 1945 to Arthur Regine Worthington and Adeline Florence (Dennis-Colgan) Worthington. She spent most of her childhood in Portland, Oregon and was a graduate of Centennial High School in 1964. At age 21, while living with her sister in Akron, Ohio, Joann met her husband Larry Allen Sayers and was married on August 19, 1967. After the birth of their first daughter in 1968 (Cheryl Ann), they moved to southern California. In 1971, they had twin daughters, (Shonda Sue and Shelly Lee). In 1977, they moved to Vancouver, Washington and a year later Joann became a single parent. Joann was a self-taught artist specializing in people and wildlife. She loved drawing for enjoyment but occasionally produced art for select clients that viewed her work. Joann attended church faithfully during her adult life. Her final church family of 11 years was LifePoint Church in Vancouver, Washington where she supported various ministries and enjoyed the women's prayer group and worship. Joann is survived by her three daughters, Cheryl Sayers, Shonda (husband Steve) Feather, and Shelly (husband Rod) Healea; her five grandchildren; one great-grandchild; brother-in-law, David Snodgrass; niece, Rachel (husband Joe) Cornell and children, Dominic and Sadie. She was preceded in death by her mother and father; sister, Judy Snodgrass; brother, John Worthington; and husband, Larry Sayers. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Camas School District Community Education Department for the Arts. Please sign her guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 05:31 PM

“ I love you Mom

Cheryl Sayers - January 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM