“ It's been almost two years now, and I'm first able to deal with your passing. I've been having a really difficult time! I get a lot of support from the few friends that I have, and family. Because I'm first starting to deal with this I'm not sure what my feelings are, but I think about you every waking minute. I miss you so much. I love you!

“ Joann I miss you already! I remember how giving of a person you were. You never put yourself first you always took care of everyone else. I am so glad that we got to take you bowling. I am very grateful for the time I got to spend with you during your last days and am so thankful that you are finally at peace. I love you! Jessica Puls

“ In remembrance of our loving daughter, sister and mother. The family will be bringing Joann home by placing a memorial marker at her father's gravesite in the City of Seymour Cemetery. A place for family and friends to visit, reminisce, place flowers and remember what a wonderful and beautiful person she was.

“ My memories of Aunt Joann start with the summers I spent at her house. I remember falling off the horse, water fights, making houses from the big cardboard boxes and plucking chickens...yuck!! I already miss our daily Emails and all the cute smiley faces she had throughout them. Love and miss you!! If Roses grow in Heaven, Lord, please pick a bunch for me, Place them in my Aunt's arms and tell her they're from me. Tell her, I love her and I miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while. Remembering her is easy, I do it every day, but there's an ache within my heart that will never go away.

“ My memories of Aunt Joann take me back to my childhood days. I remember spending summers at her house, the huge barn fire, and water fights in and out of the house. She loved to do stuff with us. I loved her even if she made me eat my peas. :- ) she was a great aunt. May you finally have peace.
