

Joanne Linda Smith

July 11, 1947 - October 3, 2016

JOANNE LINDA SMITH July 11, 1947 ~ October 3, 2016 "JoAnne was a wonderful mother and grandmother. She will be sorely missed for her loving spirit." JoAnne Linda Smith went back to be with her Lord after a long 8-year battle with Alzheimer's disease. She was born July 11, 1947 in Portland, OR to Paul and Jewel Capelle. (Her two sisters preceded her in death.) JoAnne was married in the Logan Utah Temple to her first husband, Jack Williams, who died in 1987. She married her second husband, Kenneth Smith in 1990. JoAnne worked as a dental technician, a wirerer at Western Electric, a mobile truck driver for Vancouver Library, a daycare owner, and a food services cook for the Vancouver schools. JoAnne was the most caring person you could every meet, and the most outgoing. She would talk to anyone and see if she could help them. Her hobbies were cooking, doing crafts, and she was a great interior decorator. JoAnne is survived by her husband, Ken; one daughter, Jacinda Smith (Damon); one grandson, Daigoro; three step-sons, Troy Smith (Terry Jean), Patrick Poyfair (Karli) Robley Smith (Chrissy); and 11 step-grandchildren. A funeral service will be held at the Harthwood Ward of the LDS Church, Fri., Oct. 7th at 10a.m., 220 NE Hearthwood Blvd., Vancouver, WA 98684. Please sign her guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:42 PM

“ I know that you and Jack are happy together and enjoying your Celestial Kingdom. I'm so very sorry that I was unable to meet your new husband, and give you a few hugs. I loved you throughout the years and have been trying to find you. Now I will have to await our get together for another time. God be with you till we meet again. All my love Janet

Janet Stewart Miller - January 22, 2018 at 12:00 AM