

Joe Henry Atchley

May 6, 1950 - September 13, 2024

Joe Henry Atchley passed away on September 13, 2024. Joe was born in Hot Springs Arkansas on May 5 th , 1950. Joe graduated from Hot Springs High School in 1968. Joe worked for Reynolds Aluminum which eventually brought him to the Pacific Northwest and later worked for Roadway Express retiring in 2012. Even though he spent the last 35 years living his life in Vancouver, Washington, he always called Arkansas his home.

Joe was preceded in death by his Father William Henry Atchley, and Mother Esther Mae Menser Atchley and his brothers, Doug Atchley, Alan Atchley and Russell Atchley. Joe is survived by his wife of 49 Years, Vickie Grizzle Atchley and his 3 Children Leslie Callahan, Holly Ilg and Joe W. Atchley (Fatimah Atchley). His Brother, Robert Atchley and Sister Carol Aughenbaugh (John Aughenbaugh). His grandchildren, Oliver Callihan, Addison Ilg, Cora and Izzie Atchley. All of whom he was immensely proud.

Later in life Joe enjoyed gardening, watching his grandchildren play. Often found on his back porch with a game on the radio. Joe was a passionate Arkansas Razorback fan with a love for the game of baseball, never missing a game.

There will be a celebration of life for family and close friends on Nov 17 th in Vancouver, Washington. In lieu of sending flowers donations may be made to the American Diabetes Association.
