“ Uncle Joe was the Historian of the family. I loved hearing stories about my dad, Burzell Smith, earlier days. Stories about my grandpa, grandma, and uncles. Stories about his life, the ventures with Aunt Minnie, Christopher, Darcy, and the grandkids. He always spoke fondly of them. They were his pride and joy. You could hear it in his voice. I loved hearing him and my dad talk. They would never end a conversation without talking about the cowboys. He was a die-hard fan. Uncle Joe was a loving, kind, sweet, friendly, and compassionate person. His smile, stories, jokes, and caring spirit will truly be missed. May God continue to hold our family in his loving arms. I'm praying for you all.

Love, Renee (Nae Nae)
