“ John was my adopted brother. (I'm his American sister)I was privileged to know his family from the time the girls were little. John loved to laugh. When we visited,we had to go to the White Spot restaurant for burgers. John did a goofy dance in the parking lot much to the embarassment of his girls. He loved flowers and took great pride in his garden.John met his bride at a garage sale. Prince John married his Princess. The preacher said "no more garage sales John".Their wedding is a very precious memory. He was a good friend who was loyal to his friends.He and Carol gave me so much love & support during my life trials.John was a fighter, didn't complain as he fought his illness. He was always gracious.I will miss the love, laughter and special times. We will see him again in Heaven.
