

John Douglas Ault

June 4, 1950 - July 5, 2012

JOHN DOUGLASS AULT June 4, 1950 ~ July 5, 2012 Douglass Ault of Vancouver, WA, passed away July 5, 2012 in the loving presence of his family. He was born in Cincinnati, OH to Charles S. and Maude Ault. He and his sister grew up in Wilmington, OH. Having studied chemistry at the University of Cincinnati, Doug held positions as Senior VP of Operations and Manufacturing at SEH America and Biomedical Director for the Western Region of the American Red Cross. Throughout his career, he enjoyed international travel to Japan, Malaysia, Singapore and Thailand, reinforcing his appreciation of foreign cultures. "Friends and family fondly remember Doug for his kind and generous heart, zeal for life, playful sense of humor, interest in everyone he met, curiosity and commitment to learning, and appreciation for nature. Whether golfing, hunting, fishing, playing tennis, hiking, reading a book on quantum physics or listening to local bands, he was quick to laugh and seek out new adventures with those he loved and cared for." Doug is remembered by his three sons, Max and Colin Ault and Andrew Yates; his sister, Dee Ann Teseneer; and his best friend and life partner, Heather Tischbein. A celebration of Doug's life will be held in the Red Cross building at Fort Vancouver, 605 Barnes St., Vancouver, WA, between 4:00-6:00 p.m., Sun., July 22. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the American Red Cross at: www.redcross.org.
