

John Myers Campbell

February 26, 1919 - January 11, 2010

John M. Campbell, MD of Vancouver, WA, passed away on Jan. 11, 2010. He was born in Superior, Iowa to John and Sybil Campbell. John graduated from the University of Washington and received his medical degree from University of Iowa. He served as a physician in the United States Navy, in both WW II and the Korean War. John met his wife Ramona in Honolulu, Hawaii and were married in 1954. They moved to The Dalles, OR, and lived and practiced medicine there until 1987. He was on the staff at Mid Columbia Medical Center, a Public Health physician, and was a member of the Rotary Club. John and Ramona retired to Vancouver, WA, and lived at both Fairway Village and The Waterford. He spent his retirement golfing, playing bridge, and volunteering with SHIBA. John is survived by his wife, Ramona; his daughters, Carole and Susan; his grandson, Hugh; and his honorary daughter, Patti.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

---

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 06:03 PM