

John "Jack" Arleigh Low

June 28, 1935 - October 18, 2019

John "Jack" Arleigh Low was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota to John E. Low and Clarice Olson Low on June 28, 1935. Jack passed away at his home in Vancouver, Washington on October 18, 2019.

During his childhood his family moved to Montana, where Jack was a cheerleader at and graduated from, Sidney High School.

Jack served in London, England with the U.S. Air Force.

The University of Montana Grizzlies were dear to him, as UM was his alma mater.

He was a Certified Public Accountant for many years.

Jack enjoyed lakes, rivers and oceans .. anything water. Many of his days and nights were spent at the cabin overlooking Lindburgh Lake, in Flathead National Forest. Recently he enjoyed the place in Lincoln City, listening to the roar of the waves crashing on the shore. He never tired of that. His daughters and granddaughters can also attest to the fact that he was a keen Cribbage player.

Jack is survived by daughters, Michelle Bailey of Austin, Texas, Sarah Low of Edmonds, Washington and Susan Indridason of Fargo, North Dakota; four granddaughters, Hanna, Lilly, Kylie and Sylvia; his wife of seven months, Martha and her children, Laurie Leslie, John Campbell, Chris Campbell and their families.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and two brothers, Robert and Richard "Dickie".

At 11:00 a.m., Saturday, November 16, 2019 there will be a graveside service as he is laid to rest near his late wife, Doris in the St. Joseph's Catholic Church Cemetery in Frances (near Raymond), Washington.
