

John Joseph Lee

October 30, 1924 - December 7, 2013

JOHN J. "JACK" LEE October 30, 1924 ~ December 7, 2013 Jack Lee passed away peacefully on Dec. 7, 2013. He was born in Pendleton, OR on Oct. 30, 1924. He went to college at Gonzaga University in Spokane, WA. After graduation, he attended dental school at the University of Maryland until his graduation in 1948. Jack then started his own dental practice in Vancouver, WA in 1949. Beginning in 1950, Jack served a two-year stint in the Navy during the Korean War. He then returned to Vancouver to resume his dental practice until his retirement in the early nineties. While in Vancouver, Jack met and eventually married Nancy Lee in 1955. They remained married for more than 40 years, until Nancy's death several years ago. They had three children: Bob, Jim and Katie. Jack is survived by many friends and his son, Bob. Pursuant to Jack's request, there will be no services. -
