“ Dear Carol, patty and Peggy and family, My deepest and heartfelt sympathy and prayers go out to each of you. I just always remember John as a being such a nice and kind man when I was growing up, with a smile on his face. the laughs my family had with the get togethers! After just losing my dad, Jim Ramsey, a month earlier, I know they are rejoicing together in their Homegoing! My mom and Uncle, Rodger Dewey, were just talking yesterday about contacting you to let you know of my Dad. He asked me to see if I might find you all on the Internet. I did, but sorry under the circumstances . But their is no coincidences either! May The Lord bring you great comfort and peace and be your Rock especially in the days ahead! Michelle Ramsey Baker
