

John Arva Taylor

May 25, 1933 - September 20, 2014

JOHN "JACK" ARVA TAYLOR May 25, 1933 ~ September 20, 2014 John "Jack" Arva Taylor, lifetime resident of Vancouver, WA, passed away Sept. 20, 2014 at 81 years old. He was born in Vancouver to Loren Jack and Bessie Mabel Taylor, and graduated from Vancouver High School. Jack retired in 1994 as a Construction Operator from the City of Portland, OR. He was a member of the Moose and Elks clubs, and lifetime member of Green Meadows. Jack enjoyed fishing, hunting, clamming, camping, gardening, and travel. He spent many years coaching the Columbia Little League, leading them to their first state championship. Jack was most noted for his positive reinforcement on and off the field. He always took great pride in taking care of his yard, house, and vehicles, keeping them in tip top condition. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family and friends, anytime and anywhere. Jack is survived by his wife of 18 years, Bonnie; sons, Mike Taylor (Josephine), Joseph Aaron (Sue); and daughter, Cheryl Wall (Tom); step-son, Brian O'Leary; step- daughter, Cheryl Richardson (Roger); six grandchildren; two step-grandsons; and four great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; mother of his children, Donna; sister, Jean St. Clair; and son, Johnny. A memorial service will be held Sat., Sept. 27th at 12:30 p.m. at Evergreen Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Humane Society of Southwest Washington. Please sign his guest book at: www.columbian.com/obits.
