“ Jomar was truly a nice guy in High school. I remember him living in the trailer court with his Momma and him cooking up some late night munchies for his pals on more than one occasion. I remember him and Selena together and the birth of Their daughter Alana now a young beautiful little lady with 2 kids of her own. Although my heart is saddened for a life that seems so short I am glad to know that he had once again found love and that his pain has now ended. Loving thoughts and prayers sent out to his family and friends. Rock On Jomar You Will Be Remembered

“ We are sad today for the loss of a son, a brother, a husband, a friend and a grandfather who was just a young man of 41 years when he was called home to be with our Father in heaven. He suffered greatly in the last few days and was so brave and strong and fought with all he had to hang on for those who loved him. He had a hard life in some respects but was able to be successful at what he loved doing the most. He loved his daughter with all his heart - she and his two grandchildren were his pride and joy. He lived to see Josie arrive in March and Aiden reach his 4th birthday in March. He stayed here to celebrate his 41st birthday (although)sad that he was ill - another accomplishment in his short life that he was able to stay around long enough to reach it. We love you and will miss you so much, my dearest younger brother, Jomar.
Your sister, Janice
