

Joseph Burton Nye

December 24, 1935 - April 14, 2021

Born to Elizabeth Baumgartner and Clyde Nye, 1935 in Kelso, WA. The family moved to Vancouver, WA, where he attended The Academy and Vancouver High School. In 1954 he met Suzanne and they married in 1957. They had four children, Burt, Diana (Bill), Don (Beth), Vicky (Steve); and seven grandchildren, Alicia Miner, Zach Nye (Jasmine), Curt Nye, Kristen Nye, Hannah Nye, Patrick Nye and Michael Skaling; and one great-grandchild, Austin Porter. He is survived by his brothers, John, Richard and Martin; and sister, Clare Montfort.

Joe worked at the Columbia River Paper Mill, Mayflower, sold real estate for Jack Hall Realty and became a successful builder and contractor.

Joe was an outdoors man. He loved to travel and explore the world. He and Suzy toured the US in their motor home and loved their time in Borrego Springs. He travelled with his family and had great memories of Europe and The Cook Islands. He loved to ski and was an avid hunter. He travelled to Africa and Mongolia and looked forward to his annual trips to Klickitat and Lewiston. He loved to race and was a original member of the Slo-Poks car club.

There will be no funeral service.
