“ Dear family of Julie...I had to learn about Julie's passing tonight from my newspaper. To Martin: I was Julie's "second mom" as she referred to me...once her dean of girls at Columbia Academy. I dearly loved this girl and had just recently spoken of her to some of my family members and had hoped to see her! I waited too long which saddens me! To Julie's sisters: My eyes are full of tears along with yours! I'm so sorry I couldn't have seen her before this! I plan to be present for her memorial service! My love and hugs to all who loved this precious young lady! Jacquie

“ Some of my fondest & earliest memories of my big sister are the funny little songs she sang to me. These are the same songs I sing to my children now. "Flea, Flea Fly... Vista..." "She Sat on her Hammock" and "My Guy's a Corker"... Julie is at peace now and her body is no longer straining to fight the illness. We'll see her again, I know!
