

June Pearl Black

June 1, 1931 - July 5, 2018

June was born June 1, 1931 in Winnipeg, Manitoba to William and Inez Bullard. She graduated from the 9th grade from Kitsilano High School in Vancouver, B.C. She moved to the United States in 1952, became a United States citizen and found work. She loved to dance. She met her beloved husband, Charles at a dance. They were married six months later and lived most of their lives in Vancouver, Washington. June and Charles raised their son and daughter in Vancouver, WA. She also managed their duplexes and helped Charles build 8 homes for themselves and family. Her favorite pastime was to spend time with family no matter what they were doing. She also enjoyed crafts and bowling. She was a loving and devoted wife and mother, a wonderful homemaker and a great friend to many. Notes found in her possessions described her as bringing sunshine and happiness to others. She delighted in spending time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren. June was a happy, loving, and caring person who always put others needs before her own. June passed peacefully from this life the morning of July 5, 2018 in Vancouver, WA. She was surrounded and supported by her loving family and caregivers during the last months and days of her life. She was a wonderful person and the best Mother, Grandmother and Great-Grandmother anyone could ever hope for. She will be greatly missed. June is survived by her two children and one spouse; Tracy Black, Charlene and Brian Dieringer, five grandchildren and one spouse; Brianne and Steve Leimbach, Nick Dieringer, Andrew Warden, Colette Nash, and Ashley Dreyfus, and two great grandchildren; Joseph Leimbach and Charlie Leimbach. June is also survived by her brother and his spouse Jack and Verdonna Bullard and Sister-in-Law Robbie Moore. She was preceded in death by her loving husband Charles Black.

Tribute Wall

“ 0 file added to the tribute wall

---

Evergreen Memorial Gardens - July 03, 2025 at 08:12 PM

“ Charlene and Brian, June will always be alive in our many wonderful memories with her at family gatherings. She was always laughing and a joy to be around! Margaret and Leonard treasured the friendship they had with June and Chuck. Trips together and casino excursions! We will miss June and always remember her for the positive and upbeat person she was in our lives! Thank you for sharing her with us! Joe and Shari Losch

---

Joe and Shari Losch - July 13, 2018 at 12:00 AM