

June Elinor Hall

June 23, 1923 - November 28, 2013

June Elinor Hall June 23, 1923---November 28, 2013 June E. Hall passed away peacefully on November 28, 2013, Thanksgiving being one of her favorite holidays. June was born in Elbe, Washington, on a farm built by her Norwegian grandfather. She graduated as valedictorian of Morton High School and then went on to graduate from Washington State College in Home Economics in 1945. While there she met and married her husband, George E. Hall. She was a homemaker with many interests. She led girl scouts, taught Sunday and preschool. She was active in P.E.O. and Valley Community Presbyterian Church as a deacon, elder and was a leader in their Mariner's Group. She and George traveled widely and were caught in a bomb shelter during the Arab/Israeli war in 1973. She loved bridge and golf and along with George was voted Beaverton Good Neighbors. She was a leader of the Oregon Literacy Council and taught many adults to read. But, she loved her family above all. She had three children, Dr. William A. Hall, Monterey, Ca., Marilyn L. Brinster(Ken), St. Helens, Or., and G. Edward Hall(Diana Shaw), Vancouver, Wa. She had four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her brother Sidney and husband George. Thanks to the staff at Glenwood Assisted Living in Vancouver, where she and George enjoyed their last years. The memorial service will be at Valley Community Presbyterian Church on December 23, at 10:30 am. Contributions in memory of June may be directed to Valley Community Presbyterian Church or the American Cancer Society.
