June attended Washougal High School. After high school June worked at the Pendleton Woolen Mill in Washougal and later in life she worked for Del Monte. On August 8, 1942, June married the love of her life, Joe Seekins. After World War II Joe and June started their family. They had three children, son, John Seekins (Lyn), daughter Judi Andrew (Bob), daughter Janet Seekins, (Roy). The family grew to include grandchildren Robin McBee (Corey), Jason Seekins, Ragan Myers (Michael) and Joe Beck; great grandchildren Karlee, Kelcie, and Quinn and great-great grandson Finn. A special thank you to Ruby Chapman her classmate and dear friend of 80 years; Kathy Thompson who made her hair beautiful every week for decades and all her care- givers and staff at Bridgewood, who loved her

“ I was her caregiver for the last months of her life, and she was a joy to care for. Needed very little assistance from me. She will always be a good fond memory..God Bless you all
