

Junne Lorraine Harris

June 29, 1931 - October 26, 2017

Junne Lorraine Harris, 86, of Vancouver, WA passed away on October 26, 2017 after a fight with dementia and lung cancer. Junne was born in Randle, WA on June 29th, 1931. She graduated from Vashon Island High School in 1949. Junne was married to Donald Walter Harris on October 19, 1952, they were married for 65 years. Even after all these years, Junne kept her plane ticket to Puerto Rico from the trip where she met the handsome Navy man she would soon marry. June worked as a gardener both professionally in various shops and farms throughout the years, as well as cultivating her own beautiful gardens in every home she lived in. Along with gardening, Junne loved baking, hiking, and painting. Her pies were a legendary tradition among the family during the holidays. Her talent and creativity shined through in all of her efforts and anyone with a Junne Harris original painting is lucky indeed. One of the most amazing things about Junne was her tenacity in getting both of her sons a great education at Clark School for the Deaf in Massachusetts. She was an amazing mix of tough, sweet, and caring that loved her family deeply. Junne is survived by her husband Don W. Harris, her children Jay W. Harris, Dawn I. Collins, David B. Harris, her grandchildren Tara Diaz, Brianne Collins, Dale Harris, Shawndra Collins, Connor Harris, 8 great-grandchildren, and other family and friends.
