“ My name is Jess Depree and I was introduced to Kaal in 1990 by my younger brother Shawn. Shawn and Kaal graduated together in 1993. Kaal and I remained friends for several years. Kaal and I would visit each other regularly for next decade even being roommates a few times. We hung out together in Michigan, Kentucky, Arizona and California. The last time Kaal and I meet up was in 2005 in San Diego California. Unfortunately we both started careers and families shortly after 2005 as lost contact with each other. We recently reconnected and had been exchanging life and family stories catching up for last 17 years. I would like to share one of the many funny experiences Kaal and I experienced together. In 1994 I called Kaal on short notice and recruited him to go down to puerto Vallarta, Mexico for spring break. Five day later Nick B. And I showed up in Lexington Kentucky and picked up Kaal for college road trip. The 3 of us spent next 24 hours driving straight to Tempe Arizona where we meet up with another 9 friends. Three hours later we all loaded up in suburban and the 12 of us drove straight to puerto Vallarta Mexico. Another 24 hours of straight driving. We successfully reached our destination and enjoyed a week sun, beaches and college fun. Where my story gets really funny is when we returned to Tempe and prepared to return to Lexington. I guess I forgot to inform Kaal and Nick B. We would be bringing a small package back with us. After some resistance Kaal and nick agreed to bring my 13.5 foot long Burmese python back home with us. Of course Kaal and Nick both refused to ride in back seat with snake. I would like to say there were no incidents on our way back, but that would not be accurate. On a couple occasions the snake got out the bag and proceeded to visit Kaal and Nick in the front. After a couple shrieks of fear and irritation we successfully made it back to Lexington. Kaal was always a good sport and a lot of fun to hang out with. Kaal was quick witted and very funny. Kaal was a loyal and good friend. He will be missed now and forever.
