KAMAIAH LYNN KENNEDY 9/10/1993 - 9/26/2015 Dearest Spirit of Angels, Please take care of our Kamaiah. The one with the happy brown eyes and the soft brown curls she was special, and as you know we really didn't want to let her go. Our beautiful Kamaiah no longer occupies the birth-body she walked this earth with. She has entered her spiritual home. Her soul is resting and reuniting with family loved ones. What each and every one of us knows about her unexpected death, is that it is, what you believe, that counts. What you believe in is something you must know in your heart, and believe in without a doubt. We all agree, we can't even imagine the grief that her daughter, mother, brother, and family is facing at the moment. It is at such times, when we are at our lowest, we accept the support of family and friends. In time the numbness gradually disappears, and we begin to see the pure energy of Love and Light that is Kamaiah! When someone so young, is taken from us, it is a deep hurt, a disbelief and a painful emptiness, for those of us left to mourn. But hidden in the sorrow we feel, there is the thoughts and memories, the stories, the funny stories that make us smile when she touches our thoughts on a memorable sunny day for no reason, we see her smile and hear her voice within us. She gives us guidance when we let ourselves listen. That is Kamaiah! She lifts our hearts and we feel the celebration and deep satisfaction and honor to have known her. The catastrophe of death cannot be changed, but it can be transformed by LOVE. Kamaiah was, and always will be, a part of our lives. Forever. In lieu of flowers, the donations can be made in her name to Molly's Fund. www.mollysfund.org 503-775-3497

“ I remember One time she came to a family dinner, and I didn't know whether to hug her or what to do so I just stood there awkwardly. And Kamaiah And my neice, Jayla, said hi to me. I walked away because I hadn't seen her in years and didn't know what to do. I only wish I had seen her more and had more memories that I was old enough to remember. I love you Kamaiah, ALWAYS<3!
