

Karen Louise Cole

October 16, 1949 - March 4, 2023

Karen Louise Cole, daughter of Leola and Joseph T. Yoder was born on October 16, 1948 in International Falls, Minnesota. Moving with her family to the Portland area as a child, she went on to graduate from Columbia River High School in 1967 and married her high school sweetheart Rodney Cole on October 26, 1968.

Karen was a lifelong devout Christian and active member of Laurelwood Baptist Church known by her friends and family as a "prayer warrior." She dedicated herself to consistently praying for and elevating the needs of those around her, especially through Vancouver Women's Connection where she served as a leader for decades.

Her passing has left a palpable void in the hearts of those who know her. Her beautiful life will be forever cherished by her husband Rodney Cole; daughter Bethany Joy Cole; sister Nancy Steiber; brother Joel Yoder; brother-in-law Richard Steiber; as well as countless nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.
