“ Patty, I have a confession-back in Detroit I sneaked a sip of plum brandy...still can't drink it to this day. I loved visiting with you guys, I always felt special and I was certainly spoiled. I remember when mom went to Ireland with you guys. I was sick as a dog and convinced at the time I was going to die. Aunt Shelly nursed me in mom's absence. It was all worth it when mom came home and shared the pictures and stories... all of you smiling in every picture, the experience truly enriched her life. I continue to remember the warmth of those pictures, and the innocence of youth.. Love David

“ Patty and Family, You are in our thoughts and prayers. When I think about Kay I remember our times at the cottage, her chasing Winnie around the house to get to stop barking and the time she went to Europe and came home with only 25 cents in her pocket. She touched us all, loved life and lived it to the fullest.

“ Patty and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Kay was one neat person. Michael said he loved to talk with her. Kay always had an open heart. She gave the best hugs and was always happy to see you.
