

Kathryn Chadbourne

February 22, 1948 - November 21, 2020

Kathy passed away after a 3-month battle with a cancerous GBM brain tumor. She was born in Portland, OR and raised in Vancouver, WA.

Kathy was an avid bowler when she was younger. She participated in the Special Olympics. She even spoke to our State Government about the Rights of the Disabled, with People First.

She enjoyed watching TV, especially westerns. Loved listening to music and dancing. She enjoyed coloring, bingo, and shopping. Also, enjoyed being involved with the ARC of Clark County. Kathy enjoyed working and volunteering in the community such as SEH America, Fred Meyer and Retails Thrift shop, thanks to her job coach Peggy.

Kathy loved traveling, her favorite place was Disneyland where she was lucky enough to go often, thanks to her vacation coach Sandy.

Kathy had training so she could live on her own and did so for many years with her longtime friend Patty.

She even had a boyfriend named Hans for many years.

Kathy lived her last eight years at the Love N Care Adult Family home run by Corrie Lalangan, with helpers Tess & Nora and fellow residence; Mary, BJ, Barbara, Cheryl & Dee. Many thanks to Cindy Canton at DSHS and to Kaiser Hospice for making her final days comfortable.

Kathy is survived by her 4 younger siblings. Jim Chadbourne, Thailand.

Julie Howlett Hudson of Vancouver. John Howlett of Vancouver and Nancy Pech, Troutdale, OR.
