“ I MISS YOU SOOOOO MUCH MY HEART ACHES FOR YOU! My inspiration my hero you were the only one that EVER understood that would ever take time to listen and we could vent to each other for hour rarely did we get angry at each other we were always there for each other u made me feel like I had purpose and to never give up and before u left telling me to stay strong and don't beat myself up that I do have rights and never let people take that away from me.I loved u so much I didn't want to say goodbye and BELEIVE u we're leaving us,because of u I'm still holding my ground and being the strong person u believed I could be ,I will continue make my way as right as I can ,With u looking over me still hearing what u said,I know u would be proud of me and my ways today even tho I'm not at my best,Until we meet again i will live your inspiration and love, Missing u and love u to the moon and beyond !!!
