“ Keith was my step father-in-law and a truly wonderful and exceptional man who lived an interesting and extraordinary life. He was loving, kind and generous -- he always wanted to help out his family members. He had interesting stories to tell and loved to learn about and discuss world events and politics. He loved his family and his cats :) Although he could be rather serious at times, he was also known to be quite jolly and funny too. I'll miss our long talks and am so grateful that he was in our lives. He was loved and will be missed.

I've attached a photo I took of him on a family vacation to Yachats, Oregon. We were in a grocery store where we got him to try on a couple of different hats -- this character is "Ranger Keith" out on patrol!
