“ Kelsey with the quiet yet bold sense of humor.. Having known Kelsey since she was in 7th grade and follow her life's adventures from a far. I really got to know her when we went on vacation in Hawaii. This girl is down right hilarious, incredibly organized, carefree yet responsible. What I always appreciated about Kelsey was her ability to brighten anyone's day with her smile. You were a gem to have in class and watching you grow into a strong self sufficient woman brings great joy. I am sorry I can't be there, just know you are still so loved.

“ When you lose someone you love, you gain an angel you know. No person is ever truly alone. Those who live no more, whom we loved, echo still within our thoughts, our words, our hearts forever. what is lovely never dies, but passes into other loveliness. Kelsey you will be truly missed. Fly high dear angel.

“ My son, Josiah, went to school with Kelsey. Many years after their shared first grade, Kelsey's Mom shared a story I did not know. On the playground, my son was throwing rocks. He landed one on Kelsey's forehead. She was hurt and bleeding. The good news is my son took her to an adult for help. The bad news was I never heard what he had done until years later. Kelsey carried a scar on her forehead because of him. I am so sad to hear she is gone. It's a tragedy on so many levels. My heart goes out for her mother and all other family and friends. Kelsey was beautiful and sweet. Her lose will be forever felt. Lynn (Renner) Chan
