He lived and attended school in Vancouver, WA his entire life. Kenny was a natural athlete and fan of all sports-especially football, baseball and basketball. His family had season tickets to the Portland Trailblazers and he was a passionate fan. The Cowboys were HIS team and he was thrilled when he attended a game last December in Dallas. “ We lost an amazing man indeed. Kenny you are in the arms of our Savior and we will see you again! My heart breaks for those of us who will be without your loving and kind ways in the days ahead. We will miss you, always smiling and helping those who need it, and being a friend. Rest peacefully Kenny. I'll never forget the great experience when I bought my first new car from you. You made it a pleasure. Godspeed ❤️

“ I will always treasure the times that I spent with Kenny. He had such a pure and loving heart and ALWAYS thought of others first. Frank Baum, who wrote the Wizard of Oz said that, "A heart is not judged by how much you love, but how much you are loved by others". Kenny was loved by all who knew him and I believe that is his legacy. My heart aches for his Mom and his sister, and they will be in my prayers, just as Kenny was, for God's peace. I know that I'll see Kenny again, but until then my heart will smile when I think of him. See you on the other side Kenny. Much love ❤️
