“ Kevin you were my second kid for a lot of years and I was very blessed with that fact. . Thank you for all the joy you brought . You and Craig had soooooooooo much fun together. I will always remember all the fun trips we took as a family. We would toss you boys in the back of the Station Wagon (No seat belts- would be in jail today) and away we went. The great trips to the beach cabin. What a kick you two were. You always loved it because beings Craig was 3 years younger you could act like he did and get away with it. And all the miles driving you two to the Go Cart track . The very first thing out of your mouths every morning Can we go, can we go, can we go. (o: Also all the hours of talks we had when you were a teen, Lots of happiness along with questions and tears I was so blessed to be a part of those years as hard as they were at times we always seemed to get through them. God bless you, your Mom, kids and grand kids and may he help them get through these next months and years without you. RIP my child. Will love you forever.. Janet
