

Kim S. Dos

January 1, 1956 - November 17, 2025

REMEMBER ME

Kim Sorn Dos, 69, of Vancouver, WA, passed away suddenly on 11/17/25 from health complications stemming from liver failure. He was surrounded by his loving family.

Born in Battambang, Cambodia on 01/01/1956 to the late Moth Ke and Chin Dos, he lived a life defined by his ability to help influence others with his words of endearment. He had a passion for literature. He loved to write. In 1975, he was one of many survivors who escaped oppression from the Khmer Rouge, a genocide that killed millions of Cambodians. We, as people, value life's very existence in many ways. Buddhism teaches us, the path to liberation from suffering is through moral conduct, meditation, and wisdom.

After immigrating to the States, Kim found work at SEH America to provide for his family. In his earlier years, he enjoyed fishing with his friends and finding new locations to cast a reel. Always curious about the inner workings of things, he could often be found tinkering with gadgets and gizmos in the garage or out in the backyard. He preferred to do these projects on his own, whether big or small, and he always used it as a learning opportunity to do something he hadn't done before. He was a hardworking man. He always greeted people with kindness, even knowing he may not get it in return.

Kim Sorn Dos was a devoted husband, loving father, and proud grandfather. He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Sina Chhath, and his 4 children, Kim Sean Chin, Kimsea Chin, Kim Sinara (Julie) Doschin, and Sunnie Kim Doschin. He is also survived by his 3 grandchildren, Logan Chin-Ra, Rasmie Chin, and Oliver Chin-Ra. His children are thankful for his teachings and guidance and will never forget the sacrifices he has made to support them. His kindness, wisdom, and presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him.
