“ Proverbs 13:22 says A good man leaves an inheritance to his childrens children This inheritance is not of worldly riches, but of lasting legacy. Grandpa faithfully loved and served God and others, he lived a life of humility, and was a generous, giving man. He lived out the faith that he believed in, and was a witness and a testimony to the grace of Christ. These lasting legacys I hope to instill in my children, and should the Lord tarry, into the generations to come. God definitely used Grandpa to make an impression of Himself in this world. Although Ill miss our spiritual talks, his godly wisdom, his nasally snicker, and his charming smile, Im so thankful for what hes left behind, and I know Ill see him soon.
