

Lane Edward Davidson

"Aloha Lane! You will be greatly missed!" Lane Davidson of Vancouver, WA, passed away suddenly of a heart attack on July 17, 2010. Lane was a man so full of life that his sudden passing is a shock and great loss to everyone who knew and loved him. He was a wonderful husband to his loving wife, Shannon, of 18 years, and a great friend to so many people. During his life he enjoyed hunting, fishing, mountain climbing, scuba diving, boating and traveling. Lane and his wife Shannon had hopes of retiring to their favorite place, Hawaii. They went there on their honeymoon and returned as often as they could. Lane leaves behind his wife, Shannon; his mother and father, Helen and Robert Davidson; his brother, Blayne; three sisters, Sharon, Marian, and Leslie; 12 nieces and nephews; and several grandnieces and grandnephews that he loved spending time with. There will be a potluck memorial gathering to honor his life on Sun., Aug. 29, 2010, 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Barberton Grange, 9400 NE 72nd Ave., Vancouver, WA. Please bring a dish, a story, and any pictures to share would be much appreciated.

“ Shannon...I am so sorry for your loss. I cannot believe that someone who was so full of life is gone so soon~ I can't even put into words how sad I am and how much I want to help you. Let me know if there is anything I can do to help you out. You and Lane have been a treasure and I'm so glad you two found each other and got to spend all these lovely years together. Bless you both...I'll be saying prayers for the both of you nightly. Love, Dawn

“ Rose Beyond the Wall by A.L. Frink A rose once grew where all could see, sheltered beside a garden wall, And as the days passed swiftly by, it spread its branches, straight and tall... One day, a beam of light shone through a crevice that had opened wide ~ The rose bent gently toward its warmth then passed beyond to the other side Now, you who deeply feel its loss, be comforted ~ the rose blooms there ~ its beauty even greater now, nurtured by God's own loving care.

“Shan, soo sorry for your loss. your loss is also all of ours...it's very hard to imagine that one of the toughest, smartest, and grooviest has been called home. i will miss him so. i will also celebrate him. having known him has made my life richer and i thank God for you both. i also want to help as much as i can. he being the person he was, we all need to step up and do whatever it takes to give him the send off he deserves! God bless you Shannon. my very best is on tap for remembering all that made him our friend... Psalm 139:16

“Lane Davidson is gone??!! WTF?! Lane was the guy that I truly always thought would be around forever. Stubborn, opinionated, bull-headed, tough as a rock. But Lane was also sweet, sensitive, caring, thoughtful, friendly and funny. He is married to my sister, Shannon. They have been "Shannon & Lane" "forever". Our family has had it's ups and down, agreements and disagreements, happy time and sad times and difficult times. Lane has been around for them all. I loved Lane...He was the only brother I ever had, and I love him. I'm going to miss him. Lane, I want you to know, that I will be the big sister for Shannon, that I have neglected being. I will be here for her and help her as much as I can. I wish I could see you and your bare feet and your Hawiian shirt with your fuzzy chest-hair sticking out above the buttons, just one more time. I love you and I will miss you terribly! Shannon, I love you so much and I hate that you have to go through this. It's not right or fair. I'm here, and you that. âTM¥âTM¥âTM¥âTM¥âTM¥ Roxie

“ Although I have known Shannon for many years, I have only come to really know Lane in the past two years. He was usually there when Shannon was doing my nails and we talked about many things: politics, pets, Hawaii, everything and anything. He was often the recipient of our jokes and jabs and always took it in stride and with humor. I will always remember him in the kitchen opening cans of food for his beloved cats until he found one that they were satisfied with. I knew he had a good heart when I watched how he pampered the cats. He was their man servant. You will be missed Good Time Charlie. Shannon, I am so sorry you had to experience this tragic loss.
